Making Of The Millionaires' Unit Video Posted

We have just launched a "What's New!" section on the home page of the website for the documentary film; The Millionaires' Unit: America's Pioneer Pilots of the Great War.

You will find links to a "Making Of" video shot at the Old Rhinebeck Aerodrome in Rhinebeck, NY this summer and links to the newsletter archive as well as our Facebook page.

We have also updated the production Milestones on the Calendar page.

Coming Soon - TMU Promo Film

The filmmakers are in the final stages of editing a promotional film that captures the spirit of the documentary. We'll let you know when it's been posted!

Newsletter Archive

Please visit our newsletter archive and track the progress of the film since it's start in 2007.

Donations Welcome

Though we are excited about all the new content we are creating, we still need your help to raise the funds necessary to complete the film. Join us on our website to find out how to make a contribution.

Naval Aviator #76

John V. Farwell (pictured below) was captain of the freshman and varsity track teams in 1916 and 1917. One of the original 12 First Yale Unit members, Farwell later served with the Second Yale Unit at Buffalo and became a Squadron Commander at Pensacola NAS. He also served as an ordinance officer at Trojan, France, and was in Paris among massive jubilant French crowds that flooded the Place de la Concorde for four days after the Armistice was signed. Read more about the members of the First Yale Unit on our People page.

The Millionaires' Unit: America's Pioneer Pilots of the Great War is a production of Humanus Documentary Films Foundation, a 501(c)(3) Educational Nonprofit company dedicated to producing documentary films about historically significant people and events.
